

- I will arrive at club by 9.45am and sign on promptly.
- I will pay fees promptly.
- I will ensure that I have a current gold or silver British Cycling membership.
- I will ensure my bike is in safe working order, that I am wearing suitable clothing for the weather conditions and the activity. I have a drink, snack, and spare inner tube. I will wear a helmet at all times whilst cycling.
- I will have eaten breakfast so that I have enough energy to take an active part in the club session.
- I will listen and learn from my coaches and other volunteers and treat all coaches, riders and volunteers with respect.
- I will respect club property, the property of Baldwyns Freeholder Association and the property of other individuals
- I will respect the environment in which the club session is taking place in and ensure that I put my rubbish in the bin.
- I will behave responsibly and safely whilst at Team Darenth and I will treat others with respect and understanding and as I would wish to be treated.
- I will not use foul language or behave in a rude or inappropriate manner at any time.
- I will speak to a coach, ride leader or club official if I have a problem rather than take matters into my own hands.
- I will be a good ambassador for Team Darenth when out riding and represent the club in competitions and other events.

Unacceptable behaviour will not be tolerated.

Any riders failing to comply with the code of conduct will be dealt with as follows:

1. Initial warning
2. Asked to sit out for a 5-minute period.
3. Asked to sit out the rest of the session.
4. Continued incidents will lead to a one-week exclusion from club activities

If a rider persistently breaks the code of conduct or continually disrupts sessions then the committee will consider banning them from club activities permanently

Parents will be advised as appropriate
